CTThe Charleston convention looms up in the future of the Democratic party, and the contestants e siready beginning to exhibit evidences of the reest malignity. Douglas having reached Wash ington, his right hand man, Col. Forney, has laid down the basis of future action, from which it appears there is to be no "let up" in the bitter contest between the adherents of Lecompton and Anti-Le-compton. Indeed the Doughs are rather disposed to turn the tables on the Buchs, and therefore Forney 'restored to the favor of his countrymen," which he has "lost forever". The pronunciamento like wise asserts that the Administration "has deliber tely resolved to ceize the Charleston convention and in that body to defeat any man that car elected;" because "any such man must stand forth the unreleating alversary of the new scheme of a alave code in the Territories, or of Congressional in-tervantion for the protection of slavary in the Ter-ritories." Of course Sephen A. Douglas is the "anreleuting adversary" who is to oppose the Fire-Faters and Disminulets, and if he is rejected by the Charleston convention, then he "goes it alone," with the "Union" for his right hower and "Ann Lecompton" for his left, while the nominee of th barleston equal must unfold the banner of Disunion. There will be no back down on the part

There is backbone enough here, unless the sould be a spinal softening, to meet the views of reator Iverson, of Georgia, who would not turn on his heel to choose between the Wilmot Pro and the Squatter Sovereignty of the Illinois Sona travel, and we warn all passengers that the rut are wide, the mud deep, and most of the bridge

Louisville Democrat. Yes, that is certain; and, for that reason, amonthers, the South has no further use for the Demo ratio party. If the wretched and destructive policy f squatter-sovereignty is the most that the Deunocacy can do or will do, the South is through with the noursey. And our neighbor admits with charteristic coolees that the Democracy will do no more The South, on this vital point, has no choice between Lucofocolom and Republicanism—between Douglaand Seward. Squatter-sovereignty is neither more nor less acceptable to the Southern people than the Wilmot Proviso it. Between the two, the South, in he language of Senator Davis, of Mississippi, "cu not have a preference, because she cannot recognize anything tokrable in either of them."

Yet our neighbor of the Democrat, in one of his fie of seal for Douglas, has the hardihood to tell the th outright that it must submit to squatter-soareignty or renounce the Democratic party, "I the South," he says, "in not natisfied with the posithe South," he says, "in not satisfied with the position of Douglas, let ber find a party North who will do more." The South will take our neighbor at his word. It is certainly in no danger of finding a party even in the North that will do hear.

And clauds of unriging incense burn
Before the new-born Fifty-Nine.

Lo! on the blu-bing brow of Morn

Floats round ble car with rainbox And echose many a future fame Like the faint voices of a dream.

He bears the Patman prophet's scate... The bloody som—the falling star -And in his taped charlet a beels kills the dread thunder-drum of anr.

While the stern Nemesis of God With ansheathed sabre stalks behind

To carve their names in dentifies stor And breast the fiery storms which drive Around the abining steeps of glory!

Palos bke a meteor of the fen,
And like a beacon shines afar
The cloudless can of Crittenden

No more!-no more let idle grief
